

Grammatical Structures	Examples
• simple present tense	→ Jeremy works hard.
• present continuous tense	→ Kate is looking for her purse
• can/cannot	→ He can swim.
• should/need to	→ You should finish your food.
• must/must not	→ You must not smoke here.
• be going to, will	→ I am going to watch a movie tonight.
• simple past tense	→ They stayed at a hotel last night.
• common adjectives	→ It was a fantastic movie!
• common adverbs	→ The weather was extremely cold.
• common prepositions	→ They live in London.
• some, few, many, much	→ She has many friends.
• and, but, or	→ Dorothy and her friends are playing outside.
• very, so, too	→ I am so scared!
• before, after, when	→ I called him after I finished my work.
• because, so	→ They played well so they won.
• adverbs of manner	→ He speaks English fluently.
• simple gerunds and infinitives	→ Mike enjoys meeting new people.
• imperative	→ Sit down!