

CHAPTER 1

My name is Sami. I am fifteen years old. I love playing football.

I play for my local football club, Forest Green.

Forest Green has a girls' team and a boys' team. I play for the girls' team. My brother, Janos, plays for the boys' team.

The boys' team is at the top of the league.

We train on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and we play a match on Saturdays.

Today is Tuesday. We have fitness training. Both of the teams train together.

I walk to the club with Janos and my friend, Molly. Molly is the goalkeeper for the girls' team. Molly likes Janos, but Janos does not like Molly. "She is mad," he thinks.

league (n) a group of sports teams that regularly play one another train (v) to prepare for a sports activity by doing a lot of exercise goalkeeper (n) a player whose job is to stop the ball going into the goal

mad (adj) crazy, very silly

I walk to the club with Janos and my friend, Molly.

After the fitness training, we jog around the pitch.

The boys are running ahead. They are showing off. Some of the girls are running after them.

Molly and Janos are jogging together.

“Not so fast,” shouts Julia.

Julia is the manager of the girls’ team. She is in charge of fitness training.

“Jog backwards,” shouts Julia.

I am going backwards faster than others.

“Forwards,” shouts Julia.

Sometimes we jog forwards. Sometimes we jog backwards.

We jog around the pitch twice.

jog (v) to run slowly

pitch (n) an area of ground for playing a sports game

ahead (adv) in front; toward front
